

We in Indiana do not want our telephone privacy weakened as proposed by the Consumers Banking Association. Let the people of Ind.who are affected by these phone calls determine what is right, not the big banking companies with all of the money, who can afford to fight the common man. Thank You. L.W. Campbell